

The regulations committee of Deep River is planning and zoning commission will meet Thursday, December 5 in the small conference room at deep River town Hall.

The attached article is the progress made thus far in writing bylaws for PZC in deep River. For our last meeting of the year we will review our progress thus far on the bylaws and the conclusions we have reached this far in our study of floating zones.

Signed jane samuels committee chairman